

The SWAP consortium involves strong partners from academia (CFR), a public research center (CTTC) as well as two ICT companies (World Sensing and Patavina Technologies), all with a solid understanding of wireless sensor systems, from their protocol/hardware design to the implementation and testing phases. In the last few years, all partners have been heavily involved in several flagship EU initiatives as well as in industrial and local projects.

Contacts: Dr. Apostolos Georgiadis (project leader) and/or Prof. Michele Rossi